

Sales & Marketing Development

- Interested in a Sales and Marketing role with all the right benefits?
- Perhaps a Sales and Marketing role with many exciting projects?

To express your interest please send your CV and/or brief cover letter to apply straight away!

Encompass Group are a leading global engineering company that values its staff. We are offering a great package for a new Business Development Manager/Sales Executive to join the Sales team and to support our customers in the UK and worldwide (e.g. Dubai, Singapore, Malaysia etc).

Encompass Group has manufacturing and service providing divisions. This means we have a diverse customer and prospect base which demand diverse and innovative sales and marketing approaches. Full training will be provided so a technical background is not necessary.

Full training will be provided so a technical background is not necessary.

You will have an exciting career but more importantly a great work-life balance.

At Encompass Group, we have an extremely low staff turnover which may be due to the following benefits:

- A relaxed team culture so you can be yourself
- Company bonus (for all staff)
- Company laptop and mobile provided
- 2:30pm finish on a Friday
- Casual dress code
- Subsidised Gym membership
- Ongoing development and role expansion

If you like what you see and are interested in finding out more please express your interest by applying immediately